The Orleans Showroom

The Temptations

Friday, November 8 and Saturday, November 9

The Temptations rose to fame in the early '60s with their harmonic vocals, flashy wardrobe and smooth dance moves that continue to impress fans today. After signing with Motown Records, the group released a string of chart-topping hits like “The Way You Do the Things You Do,” “Just My Imagination (Running Away with Me)” and their biggest hit, “My Girl.” The Temptations evolved their sound and style as they entered the early '70s, releasing more hits, including “Runaway Child, Running Wild,” “Cloud Nine” and the No. 1 single “Papa Was a Rollin’ Stone.”

In their nearly sixty-year career, The Temptations have achieved tremendous musical success. With 37 Top-10 hits, 15 No. 1 singles, 17 No. 1 albums and tens of millions of albums sold, they have become one of the most successful groups in music history. In 1989, The Temptations were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame for their influential R&B and soul music. The group has also won seven Grammy Awards, including the Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award in 2013.

Showtime is 8 p.m. Tickets start at $49.95 plus tax and fees, and can be purchased by calling Ticketmaster at 800-745-3000; online at www.ornleascasino.com; or in-person at The Orleans, Suncoast, Gold Coast, Sam’s Town, Aliante, Cannery and Eastside Cannery. Tickets may also be purchased the day of the show (depending upon availability) at the venue box office.

Ohio Players

Friday, November 15

The Ohio Players came into musical prominence in the '70s as pioneers of street funk and underground R&B. Throughout the group’s career, Ohio Players has landed three consecutive platinum albums, including “Skin Tight,” “Fire” and “Honey.” The group has also released two No. 1 singles, including “Fire” and “Love Rollercoaster,” as well as five No. 1 R&B singles, including “Funky Worm.”

The Ohio Players have performed all over the world and produced more than a dozen albums, receiving 14 gold and platinum awards. The group has appeared on many national television programs, including a David Letterman show. Additionally, the Ohio Players’ music has been sampled and re-recorded by several artists, including Snoop Dogg, Diddy, Salt-N-Pepa, Too $hort, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Paul Jackson Jr. and Alex Bugnon.

Most recently, the Ohio Players released their latest album, “This Is Your Night,” which is the group’s first release in nearly 15 years.

Showtime is 8 p.m. Tickets start at $24.95 plus tax and fees, and can be purchased by calling Ticketmaster at 800-745-3000; online at www.ornleascasino.com; or in-person at The Orleans, Suncoast, Gold Coast, Sam’s Town, Aliante, Cannery and Eastside Cannery. Tickets may also be purchased the day of the show (depending upon availability) at the venue box office.

Leonid & Friends - Performing The Music of Chicago

Friday, November 22

In just three short years, the Moscow-based group Leonid & Friends has impressed fans with their uncanny ability to capture the spirit, musicality and fire of American supergroup, Chicago. The band formed as a result of lead singer Leonid Vorobyev's goal to create a studio project in dedication to the band Chicago under the motto "musicians for musicians." The first video they produced went viral, gaining even more traction when the original Chicago published the video on their official website.

The talented 11-piece tribute band has more than 250,000 followers across social media and has had more than 35 million video view before ever touring outside of Russia. Audiences will enjoy Leonid & Friends' exceptional renditions of the music of Chicago as the band brings their music to the United States.

Showtime is 8 p.m. Tickets start at $19.95 plus tax and fees, and can be purchased by calling Ticketmaster at 800-745-3000; online at www.orchestrasuncoast.com; or in-person at The Orleans, Suncoast, Gold Coast, Sam's Town, Aliante, Cannery and Eastside Cannery. Tickets may also be purchased the day of the show (depending upon availability) at the venue box office.

Engelbert Humperdinck

Friday, November 29, Saturday, November 30 and Sunday, December 1

In the mid-1960s, Engelbert Humperdinck found early success in Europe with the hit single "Release Me," which spent 56 weeks in the "Top 50" of the U.K. charts, and reached "No. 1" in 11 countries. Humperdinck followed-up the hit single with the ballads "There Goes My Everything" and "The Last Waltz." In 1969, his self-titled album peaked at "No. 5" on both the U.S. and U.K. charts.

Humperdinck continued to produce hits in the 1970s, including "After the Lovin'," which became a "Top Ten" single in the U.S., earning gold designation. His album of the same name charted in the "Top 20" in the U.S. and was a Double-Platinum success for the singer. As the years went on, Humperdinck became a household name thanks to appearances on "The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson" and popular television shows, including "The Love Boat," "Hotel" and "Fantasy Island."

Throughout his career, Humperdinck has recorded 64 Gold albums, 35 Platinum albums and has been nominated for four Grammy Awards. He has also sold more than 140 million records worldwide. Humperdinck has also recorded with several fellow music legends, including Elvis Presley, Elton John, Kenny Rogers, Neil Sedaka, Gloria Gaynor and Willie Nelson.
