

‘King Explosion: Three Decades of the King’ Brings Elvis Tribute Artists to Mississippi Moon Bar June 22-23

DUBUQUE, IOWA—“King Explosion: Three Decades of the King” will bring together national award-winning Elvis tribute artists for three exciting performances June 22 and 23.

Joseph Hall has been paying tribute to the legacy of Elvis Presley since 2006. In 2008, he placed in the top 10 on NBC's “America's Got Talent” and made six TV appearances viewed by more than 90 million people. Hall has performed all over the world and won several awards throughout his career, including the “Spirit of Elvis” Award. He’s worked with Elvis Presley Enterprises as well as “Legends in Concert,” and has officially been recognized as one of the top Elvis tribute artists in the world today.

Ryan Pelton is an international award-winning Elvis tribute artist, actor, singer and songwriter. In 2001, he was named World Champion with his win at Worldwide Images of the King contest in Memphis, Tenn. He has performed in venues all over the world and recently starred in the film “The Identical.”

Bill Cherry was the winner of the 2009 Ultimate Elvis Tribute Act Competition in Memphis, Tennessee. Bill continues to entertain fans worldwide and salute the greatest entertainer of all time. He just completed touring as a featured artist on the “Elvis Lives Tour.”
