

Diamond Jo Casino to Reopen to the Public on June 1

NORTHWOOD, IOWA—Diamond Jo Casino today announced it will re-open to the public on Monday, June 1, subject to final regulatory approval.

Gaming operations will resume at 8 am Central Time on June 1, along with a limited number of amenities. The property will temporarily operate with limited capacity in compliance with state directives.

Keith W. Henson, Senior Vice President of Operations for Boyd Gaming, said: “As we return to business in Iowa, our highest priority will be protecting the health and safety of every person who comes through our doors. We will meet this commitment by following a comprehensive set of safety protocols that fully meet the most stringent requirements set by local, state and federal officials. We are excited to welcome back our guests and our team members, and we remain as committed as ever to offering Diamond Jo customers a memorable and fun entertainment experience in a safe environment.”

Upon re-opening, Diamond Jo Casino will practice “Boyd Clean,” a set of comprehensive protocols aimed at protecting the health and safety of its team members and guests. Safety protocols will include:

- Mandatory face coverings and temperature checks for all team members;
- Social distancing requirements and capacity restrictions across all customer and team member areas, including casino floors and restaurants;
- Enhanced cleaning and sanitation of all high-touch surfaces, including door handles, gaming machines, table games, handrails and elevator buttons;
- Increased placement of hand sanitizer dispensers throughout our properties;
- Required training for all team members on our safety protocols.
